

2014

Ms. Alabama

Nursing Home Pageant Contestant

Ms. Cloie Kelley

Ms. Cloie Kelley, age 79, has been selected as a top ten finalist for the Ms. Alabama Nursing Home Pageant to be held at the Hyatt Regency Birmingham – The Wynfrey Hotel in Hoover on Monday, July 28, at 2:00 p.m. The winner of the pageant will serve as a spokesperson for nursing home residents and the Alabama Nursing Home Association (ANHA).

Earlier this year, Ms. Kelley earned the title of Ms. Woodland Village Health Care Center by competing in the facility's local pageant. Woodland Village Health Care Center is a 149 bed skilled nursing facility.

If you visit the facility, you'll likely find Ms. Kelley busy helping with and enjoying all the daily scheduled activities. Most of all she loves to dance and sing! She is an active member of Resident Council and the "Go Getters" group, a welcoming committee. Ms. Kelley is a people person that loves to meet and talk with new people and encourages other residents to become involved in the life of the nursing home, which she now calls "her family and home".

Ms. Kelley and the other finalists were selected from a field of 58 contestants during preliminary judging in Montgomery. The contestants are evaluated on their outlook on life, personality, poise and involvement in their individual nursing homes.

"The Ms. Alabama Nursing Home Pageant is a celebration of life and our nursing home residents' contributions to their communities," ANHA President Frank Brown said. "Each of these contestants captures that spirit. These ladies are wonderful ambassadors for their individual nursing home and Alabama's long term care profession."